DENISE COTE, District Judge:

On April 6, 2020, Nehemiah Casey McBride (USM # 73500-054) brought an emergency motion for compassionate release. On January 3, 2020, McBride was sentenced to a term of imprisonment of four months with no term of supervised release to follow. He is scheduled to be released on April 13, 2020. His attorney represents that McBride suffers from asthma. The defendant asks that he be permitted to serve the remaining days of his sentence on home confinement. On April 7, The Government indicated that it did not oppose his immediate release. Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED that the Bureau of Prisons shall release Nehemiah McBride from custody forthwith.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Nehemiah McBride shall go directly to his home and remain there until April 13, 2020, at noon, except that he may leave home to obtain emergency medical care.
